

Curriculum Vitae

Amy Cannefax, FCPA, CPA, CMA

Amy Cannefax is a Forensic Certified Public Accountant, Certified Public Accountant and Certified Management Accountant. Ms. Cannefax has training in Corporate Fraud Examination, Forensic and Investigative Accounting and Criminal Interrogations and Confessions. Ms. Cannefax has a strong financial background with experience in the analysis and reporting of a broad range of financial information, from traditional financial statements, to detailed management reports requiring explanations and recommendations for business action. She has over 25 years of tax experience, focusing on Partnership/Corporate/REIT taxation, including over 15 years of reporting tax information for real estate partnerships with over 10,000 partners. She was an Ethics Officer for a large financial services company for over 10 years.

Prior Experience

- Vice President of the Tax Department at United Services Automobile Association (USAA), a $14 Billion dollar financial services company
- Executive Director of Corporate Financial Reporting at USAA
- Public Accountant, Ernst & Young

Education

Bachelor of Business Administration (with Honors), University of Texas at Austin

Professional Accreditations

Forensic CPA (Forensic CPA Society)

Certified Management Accountant (Institute of Management Accountants)

Professional Licenses

Certified Public Accountant (State of Texas)

Professional Memberships

American Institute of Certified Public Accountants

Association of Certified Fraud Examiners

Forensic CPA Society

Institute of Management Accountants